Vision To Do Good

The Personal Philanthropy of Benjamin Franklin

Ben Franklin has been called the First American. We've all heard about the kite, but few have heard about his philanthropy. Come hear the amazing story that extends from his childhood in Boston to the hundreds of young people who benefit from his charitable planning today. Specifics include the philanthropy of thanks, mentorship, community, volunteering and estate planning. Come prepared to be inspired to take practical action to increase your own usefulness to others.

Actions you'll learn:

- A really cool story from American History
- Your next step to increase your own impact
- The importance of vision in having an impact
